Ms. MacAdam is an Associate at Damon & Morey LLP, practicing in the Health Care Practice Group. She concentrates in the health care regulatory and compliance fields for both for-profit and not-for-profit entities. Ms. MacAdam has counseled hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, home health agencies, assisted living facilities, hospices, emergency transportation providers, and health care professionals.

Ms. MacAdam focuses on government licensure issues, including certification, survey, and enforcement actions; corporate compliance and fraud & abuse matters; health information privacy concerns, including HIPAA and state law compliance; and reimbursement matters. She also handles concerns of health care professionals, such as employment, licensure, credentialing and discipline. Ms. MacAdam drafts and negotiates contracts involving managed care, employment, affiliation, and vendor relationships.

Ms. MacAdam is admitted to all courts in New York State and Washington, D.C. as well as being admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court. She is a member of the New York State Bar Association, Monroe County Bar Association, Greater Rochester Association for Women Attorneys, District of Columbia Bar and the American Health Lawyers Association.

Actively involved in the community, Ms. MacAdam is a member of the board for the Memorial Art Gallery, current Chair of its Ethics Committee and member of its Buildings & Grounds Committee.

Ms. MacAdam received her B.A. degree, cum laude, from Columbia College in 1990. She went on to receive her J.D. degree from the Columbia University School of Law in 1993. While attending law school, she was an administrative editor of the Columbia Journal of Law and Social Problems as well as a staff member of the Columbia Journal of Gender and Law.

Prior to joining Damon & Morey, Ms. MacAdam worked as an Associate at Nixon Peabody LLP (Rochester, N.Y.) and Epstein, Becker and Green PC (Washington, D.C.).
