

Randolph C. Oppenheimer

Randolph C. Oppenheimer is Special Counsel at Damon & Morey LLP, where his practice focuses on Labor and Employment, Commercial Litigation and Intellectual Property Litigation. He has represented clients before state and federal agencies and courts for more than twenty-eight years.

Mr. Oppenheimer is a certified commercial mediator for the New York State Supreme Court - Eighth Judicial District (which includes Erie, Allegany, Cattaraugus, Genesee, Niagara, Orleans and Wyoming counties). He is a member of the Bar Association of Erie County, the New York State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. Mr. Oppenheimer also is a member of the Society of Human Resource Managers, the Buffalo Niagara Human Resources Association, and the Labor and Employment Research Association.

A frequent lecturer, Mr. Oppenheimer has made presentations and conducted trainings on litigation avoidance and labor law issues for bar associations, employers, community groups, trade associations and schools. Additionally, he has authored dozens of articles on a variety of litigation and labor and employment related topics.

In 2007, Mr. Oppenheimer was selected as a member of Business First of Buffalo's "Who's Who in Law" List. He is currently listed as one of The Best Lawyers in America® for Labor and Employment and as one of Upstate New York's Super Lawyers® in three categories - Labor and Employment, Business Litigation and Intellectual Property Litigation.

Active in the community, Mr. Oppenheimer currently serves as the Vice-President of the Board of Directors for Legal Services for the Elderly, Disabled and Disadvantaged of Western New York, a Trustee for the Roger Tory Peterson Institute, and the President of the Board of Directors for the Friends of the Lower Great Lakes Fishery Resources Office (U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service).

Mr. Oppenheimer received his B.A. in Political Science from the University of Vermont in 1976 and his J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 1979. While attending law school, he served as an Associate Editor of the Law Review.
