Frederick A. Wolf serves as Special Counsel for Damon & Morey LLP. Mr. Wolf concentrates his practice on municipal, banking and business law.

Mr. Wolf has more than twenty years of municipal experience. For the last six years, he served as the Erie County Attorney. Previously, he was the attorney for the Town of Aurora, the Village of Lancaster and Erie County Sewer District No. 4.

He has extensive experience with business and security transactions, general corporate and partnership matters, banking law, real estate development, land use, zoning, and commercial leasing and lending. He has represented several smaller banks in mergers and acquisitions and helped form two New York State chartered de novo banks, Jamestown Savings Bank and Greater Buffalo Savings Bank. Currently, Mr. Wolf represents Erie County on the sale of its 2006 and 2007 tax liens.

He began his legal career at the firm of Little & Burt, then general counsel to Buffalo Savings Bank, which later became Goldome. In 1981 when Little & Burt merged with Saperston & Day, Mr. Wolf continued to manage the firm's relationship with Goldome. Between 1980 and 1991, the bank formed and operated over 90 subsidiary corporations while assets grew from $2 billion to $7 billion.

Mr. Wolf served as a trustee of the Buffalo General Foundation and as a director of the University of Buffalo School of Law Alumni Association, Monroe Title Insurance Corporation, the Greater Buffalo Savings Bank and a member of the Board of Directors of Great Lakes Bancorp, Inc, a publicly owned bank holding company whose stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. He also served as a director of the Niagara Frontier Vocational Rehabilitation Center, Inc. and the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County in addition to serving as a member of the Board of Trustees of Canisius High School.

Admitted to practice in New York State and Florida, Mr. Wolf is a member of the Erie County, New York and Florida Bar Associations. Mr. Wolf was named to Business First's of Buffalo's Who's Who in Law List in 2007 and was recently selected by her peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2008 in the field(s) of Land Use & Zoning Law (Copyright 2007 by Woodward/White, Inc., of Aiken, S.C.).
