Mr. Zini is a Senior Associate practicing in the Business Litigation and Insolvency Department of Damon & Morey LLP, where he concentrates on commercial litigation and intellectual property litigation. He works primarily with corporations and professional clients in complex litigation involving commercial transactions, non-competition and confidentiality agreements, franchise litigation, unfair competition, trademark infringement, fraud, and other business torts. He also represents general contractors and subcontractors in a variety of construction litigation matters.

Mr. Zini received his B.A. degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo in 1993. He then received his J.D. degree, with honors, from the University of Tulsa College of Law in 1997. While in law school, he was Notes and Comments Editor for the University of Tulsa Law Journal (1996-1997) and the Copy Editor for Baculus, The College of Law Newspaper (1995-1997).

Prior to coming to Damon & Morey, Mr. Zini practiced in Washington, D.C., where he also focused on business litigation. He advised a new franchisor on the impact of bankruptcy on franchising in connection with that franchisor's $2.26 billion purchase of a large international quick service restaurant chain, and regularly represented franchisors in disputes against their franchisees. He also represented national employee benefit plans in disputes with their contributing employers.

Mr. Zini is a member of the New York Bar Association.
