Ms. Roehl is an Associate at Damon Morey LLP, practicing in the firm's General Litigation Department. Her practice is concentrated in the areas of medical, dental and podiatric malpractice, as well as nursing home negligence and general liability.

Ms. Roehl received her B.A. degree in Policy Studies from Syracuse University in 2002. She went on to receive her J.D. degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School in 2006. While attending law school, Ms. Roehl completed a judicial externship with the Hon. Vincent E. Doyle, Jr.

Ms. Roehl is a member of the Bar Association of Erie County, the New York State Bar Association (including its Health Law Committee) and the American Bar Association. She is admitted to practice in all state courts of New York, as well as in United States District Courts in the Western and Northern districts of New York, and the Second Circuit Court of Appeals.

Active in the community, Ms. Roehl is a member of the Board of Directors for the Nardin Academy Alumni Association. She is also involved with Lawyers for Learning.
