Mr. Naegely is a Partner in the Firm's General Litigation Department. His practice focuses on defending physicians, nurses, hospitals and nursing homes in civil matters, as well as in defense matters involving the New York State Education Department and Department of Health. Additionally, Mr. Naegely has experience in the areas of sports law and general liability.

Mr. Naegely received his B.A. degree, cum laude, in Political Science from the State University of New York at Buffalo where he was selected as one of the top fifty graduating seniors. He was a member of the Golden Key National Honor Society, the Mortar Board National Honor Society, and Phi Sigma Alpha Honor Society. He then went on to earn his J.D. degree, cum laude, from State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law, where he was a recipient of the 1998 Robert J. Connolly Award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy.

Prior to joining Damon Morey, Mr. Naegely was a Program Coordinator for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Western New York.

Mr. Naegely is a member of the Bar Association of Erie County and the New York State Bar Association. His publications include, "Telemedicine: Will Technology Expand Medical Liability." In 1999, he co-authored the New York portion of the American Law Firm Association Transportation Compendium, and he has been a lecturer for Lorman Education Services.

Mr. Naegely was born and raised in the Buffalo area where he currently resides with his wife and two daughters.
