Mr. Saccomando is a Partner at Damon Morey LLP, practicing in the firm's Litigation Department. He practices in the area of insurance defense, including defense of self-insured corporations, with an emphasis on claims involving products liability, construction accidents, premises liability, and trucking and motor vehicle accidents. He has successfully defended numerous fire loss subrogation claims involving a variety of products. He also represents attorneys in the defense of malpractice actions. He is member of the firm's trucking litigation practice group.

Mr. Saccomando also has extensive experience in insurance coverage and life insurance matters, and has authored "Exclusions in Commercial General Liability Policies" as part of the Insurance Law Practice series distributed by the New York State Bar Association.

As an appellate litigator and member of the firm's appellate practice group, Mr. Saccomando has handled dozens of appeals in litigation matters. He is admitted to practice before all state and federal courts in New York.

Mr. Saccomando most recently lectured on the New York State Labor Law pertaining to construction accidents for the New York State Bar Association. He has also authored an article for the Journal of the Ontario Insurance Adjusters Association entitled "A Brief Overview of Insurance Defense Litigation in New York State." Mr. Saccomando's professional memberships and affiliations include the New York State Bar Association, the Erie County Bar Association and the Western New York Trial Lawyers Association.
